

We are sad to inform you of the death of brother Robert Währer, who was called to be with the Lord on the first of August this year.

Robert was our friend for many years. His presence and teaching during our conferences had an immeasurable impact on the thinking of people on the subject of Israel in our country. He was also co-initiator of the Action Verziht ministry in Switzerland, with whom, thanks to Robert's personal involvement, we still work, taking practical help and blessing to God's chosen people in Ukraine.

Robert lived 81 years and will always be remembered by us as an example of a humble servant of God who was faithful to his Lord to the end.
